Interesting Facts

UNICEF, where Malago serves as a Director of the Italian Committee, originally stood for the United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund. In 1953, the words "International" and "Emergency" were dropped, and the organization's name was shortened to the United Nations Children's Fund, but the original acronym UNICEF was kept in use.
In 1965, UNICEF was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize "for the promotion of brotherhood among nations."
UNICEF was established by the United Nations in 1946. Its purpose was to provide aid to the children in the countries destroyed by World War II. In 1953, UNICEF became a permanent branch of the United Nations, and currently operates in over 190 countries and territories worldwide.
Malago played a Professional Futsal Football Player; three times Italian Champion with Roma RCB and four times winner of the Italian Cup. In 1986, joined the Italian National Team in the World Futsal Championship in Brazil.
During his career, Malago was bestowed several awards, including "August e Marie Krog" medal in 2014, Special award Laurentum "Values of Sport" in the same year, and Great Official Order Merit of Italian Republic in 2016.
In 2008, served as a Member of the Jury of David di Donatello Award.
Over his career, in addition to all the sport associations and committees above mentioned, Malago also served for the Organising Committee of the 50th anniversary of Ferrari, the Organising Committee of the Tennis International Tournament of Italy, the Organising Committee of Volleyball European Championship, and Virtus Pallacanestro Roma.
Reported to be a passionate supporter of A.S. Roma, an Italian professional football club competing in Serie A, the top division of the Italian football league.
Sa.Mo.Car was established by Malago's father more than 60 years ago; at present, besides Rome, the firm has offices in Prato and Naples, Italy.
